

Women's Division Questions for RENEW September 21 Forum

1. From your perspective, what do you believe is the role of women in the life and ministry of the United Methodist Church? Should women's membership organizations be accountable to an elected board of representative members? How is RENEW accountable to its members? To The United Methodist Church?
2. What are the gifts of the Women's Division that you believe help to fulfill God's mission and make the world a better place for women, children and youth?
3. Is relating to people of other faiths important? If so, what are your goals in such relationships? From your perspective, does the Christian faith have any room for viewing people of other religions as anything other than prospects for conversion to Christianity? From your point of view, what happens to conscientious people of other faith traditions in the afterlife?
4. Do you believe that conscientious Christians working to further the mission of Christ can have legitimate differences about matters of Biblical interpretation and about matters of appropriate social engagement in the world?
